THRASS Information Evening

The THRASS parent information evening was held on Sept. 11th with a fantastic attendance of over 50 parents. Denyse Ritchie was an engaging & informative speaker. She offered parents the opportunity to learn the concept behind the THRASS chart as well as question some long perceived spelling ‘rules’. Thank-you to all parents who attended and if you missed out, don’t worry - we will be inviting Denyse back in 2014!

Thank-you, Nerida Mellerick

News from the Library

We’ve been buying lots of new books – some of them are replacements for very popular titles that are falling apart; some are extra titles in a series; and some are just great new books! Here is a sample:

- The 13-storey treehouse and The 39-storey treehouse by Andy Griffiths
- How to train your dragon – 6 more books in the series
- Tom Gates – 5 more in the series (we are still waiting for some of these to be delivered)
- Our Australian Girl – Book 3 about Lina and Book 3 about Ruby
- Skulduggery Pleasant - 3 more in the series
- Andy Roid – 6 more of these
- Arkie Sparkle, treasure hunter – 4 more in the series
- Warriors – 10 books in this never-ending fantasy series about cats
- Fabulous new book from the irresistible Mo Willems – Goldilocks and the three dinosaurs
- The boy who swam with piranhas by award-winning English writer David Almond
- Sally Rippin’s new book Spooky House, for all those Billie B Brown fans, is for a slightly older readership as Billie forms a Secret Mystery Club.

And many, many more... make sure you borrow some good books for the holidays!

4KW would like to thank everyone,

particularly Simon Taylor, who helped build their wonderful garden. Simon spent many hours of his time building planter boxes and organising suitable plants for our garden and we couldn’t have done it without him. The courtyard is now being used every day as an added learning space to our classroom and the garden is being well looked after by all students.

A SLICE OF MANDARIN

NI HAO MA??!! It’s Xiao Long, your favourite dragon!

WOW, time flies by, it’s the end of school term, YAY!!! And do you remember that there is VERY a special Chinese festival this month?! YUP, it’s time to celebrate the Mid-Autumn Festival (Zhong Qiu Jie) again!!

This year’s Mid-Autumn Festival (also known as Moon Festival) is on the 19th September. If you read last year’s newsletter you know that Chinese people believe that on this day, the moon is at its brightest and roundest and that this is a holiday where Chinese people spend time with their families and friends to admire the bright full moon, eat pomelo and moon cakes!!

And do you remember the story of the Moon Festival? It’s a bit long, so you probably don’t remember all of it. Here it is again, it’s a great story for your mum and dad to read to you as your bedtime story 😊

Long time ago, there were 10 suns in the sky. They burnt all the plants on the earth, and people were dying. One day, a hero named Hou Yi used his bow and arrows to shoot down nine of them. All the people on the earth were saved. The queen of heaven rewarded Hou Yi with a bottle of potion that could make him immortal, but the potion was only enough for one person. Hou Yi did not want to become an immortal by himself because he wanted to stay with his beautiful wife Chang’e, so he didn’t drink the potion and asked his wife Chang’e to keep it for him.

Hou Yi was becoming more and more famous after he shot down the nine suns, and more and more men wanted him to be their master. As he grew famous and powerful, Hou Yi changed and started wanting more power. He became mean, bad tempered and cruel. Chang’e was sad to see her husband turn into a bad person and she became scared of him. On the day of the moon festival, Hou Yi told his wife that they’d share the potion but Chang’e felt that it would cause too much suffering for people if he became immortal so she drank the potion immediately. The potion made her an immortal and she flew higher and higher. Finally, she stopped on the moon. From then on, people often pray to Chang’e for fortune and safety.

By the way, do you know that some of our teachers are actually in China this week visiting our sister schools and doing fun stuff with them! I can’t wait to hear their adventures when they are back in Term 4!!

I hope you enjoyed your little slice of Mandarin this term, and wish you and your family a safe and fun school holiday!

再见 (zai jian)!
Editorial

It's a wonderful feeling when around this time of the year, you can actually see how all our efforts are gradually coming together for our Fair. There are 10 weeks to go, with lots happening.

We've been fortunate enough to have some great sponsors this year -- Kennards Self Storage Abbotsford and Jellis Craig Clifton Hill. In addition to contributing financially, we have also received additional assistance which helps our Fair efforts enormously. Details are outlined in this newsletter.

Please support those businesses that support us. This includes the increasing amount of businesses published in the regular Shhhh notices.

Also highlighted are some of the amazing food stalls -- the old favourites, the return of some ‘oldies but goodies’ and a few ‘new kids on the block’. Experience your own Slow Food movement on Fair Day.

All stalls now have grades allocated and details are listed on the school notice board. Many of these still require your assistance to ensure their success on the day so feel free to put your name down against your child/children’s grade stall.

Queries? Ideas? Suggestions? Please feel free to contact me at e| wilsontwo@optusnet.com.au - Best wishes  Melinda Wilson, Fair Co Coordinator

STALL HOLDERS UNITE

Each stall has now been allocated a class and the list displaying this information (along with stall holder contact details) is on the School Noticeboards.

Feel free to volunteer for your child's/children's class stall and even others if you wish. It's a great opportunity to meet other parents in the school community; it's a lot of fun and more importantly, the more helpers the better!
OUR SPONSORS’ GENEROSITY

Thank you to John Golding and the team at Kennard’s Self Storage Abbotsford. Not only are they coming on board as one of our sponsors, but they have also offered four storage spaces for the Silent Auction (including two for wine storage).

Their enormous storage centre is located Hoddle St adjacent to the freeway. They pride themselves on being the cleanest storage centre in the local area. They have everything from mini warehouses, motorcycle storage including storage spaces for business and personal use. You can even purchase packing material from them at a reasonable rate. Contact them for a quote on t| 9417 1477 or e| abbotsford1@kss.com.au. If you do drop in, don’t forget to thank them for sponsoring our Fair.

Thank you also to our sponsor Jellis Craig for once again supporting our fair. They provide the 10 billboards, 50 corflutes and other printed material required to advertise our school fair to the wider community.

Established in 2004, Jellis Craig Clifton Hill is an integral part of one of Melbourne’s leading real estate companies, providing a premium property service to clients in and around Melbourne’s inner city. Jellis Craig Clifton Hill continues to successfully achieve exceptional results, high clearance rates and repeat business. Since their inception, they have successfully sold 95% of properties listed for auction. Over 60% of their business now comes through referral and reappointment. Jellis Craig, Clifton Hill is committed to supporting the local community by providing sponsorship and fundraising assistance to local schools, sporting groups and associated community groups.

FAIR FOOD SHOWCASE 2013

Our Fair is renown for offering a delicious array of dishes to suit all sorts of unique palates and this year is no exception. Treat it as a progressive eating indulgence or even a Slow Food experience so that it stretches from morning snacks through to lunch and finishing off with a delightful afternoon tea.

Our regulars will certainly not disappoint:

Dutch Pancakes: eat as many of these scrumptious little morsels as you like – they’re so tiny you can’t possibly feel guilty!

Strawberries, Scones and Cream: go the strawbs & cream or go traditional with scones & cream with a cuppa – just like Nan’s, only better!

Cakes: buy a tiny cupcake for yourself or a family sized cake to share later.

Coffee: what would our Fair be without our standard staple – look out for the beloved coffee kiosks throughout the Fair grounds.
FAIR FOOD SHOWCASE 2013

Time for lunch? Check out our regulars including a few special new stars and some favourite comebacks:

Le Grand BBQ -highlighting sponsor Jonathan's gourmet sausages with the added favourite, yummy pommes frites.

Gyros -cooking the delicious Jonathan's marinated meat on the spit and Clockwork Café's lamb on a spit.

Asian Food Stall cooked none other than our darling Lee Lee.

Moroccan Caravan: the old favourite is back, offering vegetarian delights cooked by Ricky Holt Catering.

Bakers Delight will be supporting our BBQ by supplying all of the bread.

Tutti i Sapori the lovely new kid on the block will be cooking home made pasta with accompanying sauces. Belissimo!

Think plants, think propagation, think Plant Stall at the fair!

Spring has sprung and the fair is approaching. We are looking for: plants to sell (herbs, succulents, natives etc.). If your kids want to get involved, they could propagate a plant or paint a pot. Other plant related goods to sell ie. gloves, gardening tools, seeds etc. Generally plants or items under $20 sell the best.

People to man (or women!) the stall for 1-2 hours during the day. Depending on the numbers we get, we will roster accordingly.

Ideas for sponsorship from local business which might be relevant. I am happy to approach them, but ideas would be good.

We are novices at the stall game and can use all the help we can get especially on the plant front.

Please email Penny with any ideas or contributions on penny@pgray.com or call on 0401713204

Contact Penny Gray at penny@pgray.com.

An afternoon breather?

The day is not complete without something sweet and delectable from Cavallini, serving homemade delicious freshly churned Italian gelati (ice-cream) The great thing about a refreshment break is that it can happen at any time of the day with the following on offer: Little Creatures will highlight the Bar stall. The old favourite Daiquiri Stall will serve up delicious Daiquiris and Non Alcoholic Slushies and is on the map. For the little people and those who prefer a fizzy splash or simply water, there will be a separate stall selling non-alcoholic drinks.

COLLECTIONS CONTINUE

We are still collecting items for our stalls so start that spring cleaning before the end of term and drop off records, musical instruments, books and craft.

AND CONTINUED NEXT TERM...

Don’t forget that next term we will commence collecting second hand goods and clothing. Look out for the flyer that will be coming out soon.

CHPS FAIR GIANT WINE RAFFLE

It is that time of year again. We are again running the very successful “Giant Wine Raffle” at the school fair. We are calling on all families in our school community to donate 1 bottle of wine towards the raffle. Donations need to be received in Term 3. Could you please leave your donation at the office ASAP? Thanks for your assistance.
