Students in years one – six have the choice to study Mandarin or French during their remaining time at Clifton Hill Primary School. We believe the quality of a school is determined by the quality of its teaching staff and CHPS has an outstanding group of professional educators. Our educators aim to achieve Excellence in Education through:

- Fostering Strong Relationships
- Creating Genuine Learning Opportunities
- Focusing on Student Engagement.

We are a straight-grade school (no composites and no multi-aging) with a significantly high proportion of high-achieving students. Having said that, we have students with wide-ranging abilities and backgrounds and strive to create a culture of inclusiveness. Clifton Hill Primary School believes in recognises the importance in collaborating with our families to ensure that all of our children reach their potential.
